BIKE TEST / SPECIALIZED

SPECIALIZED RUMOR COMP

Rumor has it...

Specialized's goal is to make bikes to fit the needs of every rider out there. For decades, bikes were only designed based on the discipline in which they would be ridden rather than the people riding them. Specialized recognizes that not only are the needs of female riders physically different from that of male riders, but female riders may also be looking to get something different out of their mountain biking experience. The Rumor is Specialized's response to this realization, backed by extensive field research and medically tested design.
